

MARKET REVIEW

Week Ending Feb. 10, 1923.

GRAIN AND CROP ESTIMATES

WHEAT AND POULTRY PRODUCTS

Domestic poultry market steady with a glut of fowl and soft mottled chickens. Grades moving slowly. Fowl (42-48-52-58-60 cents; 5-11-15-21-23-28 cents; 4-8-16-20-23 cents; 8-32-40-48-52-58-60 cents; 1-10-15-20-25-30 cents) up to 36 cents. LIVE POULTRY: HET irregular with a good demand for broilers and fowls. Chickens, arrivals show starchy and coarse. 40-50 cents. CHICKENS 15-20 cents. Eggs 15-18 cents. BUTTER: MARKET leveled firm with prices advancing 1/2 cent each day, crude, 25 cents, attractive on Monday but only on a balance of the week as buyers were well supplied. Butter, 25 cents, purchased on Monday. Dealers are firm and many have no orders. There are premiums over the quotation a dollar fairly well cleaned up and the bulk of output on an order. 50 cents. Northern extras 45-50 cents, extra 40-45 cents. BUTTER: MARKET leveled firm with prices advancing 1/2 cent each day, crude, 25 cents, attractive on Monday but only on a balance of the week as buyers were well supplied. Butter, 25 cents, purchased on Monday. Dealers are firm and many have no orders. There are premiums over the quotation a dollar fairly well cleaned up and the bulk of output on an order. 50 cents. Northern extras 45-50 cents, extra 40-45 cents. BUTTER: MARKET leveled firm with prices advancing 1/2 cent each day, crude, 25 cents, attractive on Monday but only on a balance of the week as buyers were well supplied. Butter, 25 cents, purchased on Monday. Dealers are firm and many have no orders. There are premiums over the quotation a dollar fairly well cleaned up and the bulk of output on an order. 50 cents. Northern extras 45-50 cents, extra 40-45 cents.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Domestic fruit market steady with a glut of fowl and soft mottled chickens. Grades moving slowly. Fowl (42-48-52-58-60 cents; 5-11-15-21-23-28 cents; 4-8-16-20-23 cents; 8-32-40-48-52-58-60 cents; 1-10-15-20-25-30 cents) up to 36 cents. LIVE POULTRY: HET irregular with a good demand for broilers and fowls. Chickens, arrivals show starchy and coarse. 40-50 cents. CHICKENS 15-20 cents. Eggs 15-18 cents. BUTTER: MARKET leveled firm with prices advancing 1/2 cent each day, crude, 25 cents, attractive on Monday but only on a balance of the week as buyers were well supplied. Butter, 25 cents, purchased on Monday. Dealers are firm and many have no orders. There are premiums over the quotation a dollar fairly well cleaned up and the bulk of output on an order. 50 cents. Northern extras 45-50 cents, extra 40-45 cents.

MARKET REVIEW

Week Ending Feb. 10, 1923.

GRAIN AND CROP ESTIMATES

WHEAT AND POULTRY PRODUCTS

Domestic poultry market steady with a glut of fowl and soft mottled chickens. Grades moving slowly. Fowl (42-48-52-58-60 cents; 5-11-15-21-23-28 cents; 4-8-16-20-23 cents; 8-32-40-48-52-58-60 cents; 1-10-15-20-25-30 cents) up to 36 cents. LIVE POULTRY: HET irregular with a good demand for broilers and fowls. Chickens, arrivals show starchy and coarse. 40-50 cents. CHICKENS 15-20 cents. Eggs 15-18 cents. BUTTER: MARKET leveled firm with prices advancing 1/2 cent each day, crude, 25 cents, attractive on Monday but only on a balance of the week as buyers were well supplied. Butter, 25 cents, purchased on Monday. Dealers are firm and many have no orders. There are premiums over the quotation a dollar fairly well cleaned up and the bulk of output on an order. 50 cents. Northern extras 45-50 cents, extra 40-45 cents.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Domestic fruit market steady with a glut of fowl and soft mottled chickens. Grades moving slowly. Fowl (42-48-52-58-60 cents; 5-11-15-21-23-28 cents; 4-8-16-20-23 cents; 8-32-40-48-52-58-60 cents; 1-10-15-20-25-30 cents) up to 36 cents. LIVE POULTRY: HET irregular with a good demand for broilers and fowls. Chickens, arrivals show starchy and coarse. 40-50 cents. CHICKENS 15-20 cents. Eggs 15-18 cents. BUTTER: MARKET leveled firm with prices advancing 1/2 cent each day, crude, 25 cents, attractive on Monday but only on a balance of the week as buyers were well supplied. Butter, 25 cents, purchased on Monday. Dealers are firm and many have no orders. There are premiums over the quotation a dollar fairly well cleaned up and the bulk of output on an order. 50 cents. Northern extras 45-50 cents, extra 40-45 cents.

[illegible]

The imported Gu
Tappan's Governor of
L. B. CARL
3tt
S

Announcements Corrected
Oxford

Suffered B
20 Years
Relieved by

"Had to wear special shoes of painful bunions," says
"After 20 years of perfect comfort, due to E
Nothing removes like E instantly. Bunions literally are guaranteed and sold